In March 2009, SportAccord signed an agreement with the city of Beijing, P. R. China, to organize the first SportAccord Combat Games. Scheduled from 28 August to 4 September 2010, the competition will showcase 13 Martial Arts and Combat sports, both Olympic and non-Olympic. The event will also include a Cultural Program that will reflect the social and cultural values of these sports and Combat Games as a whole.

Sport Accord has announced that each sport will have 80 top athletes competing in the 2010 SportAccord Combat Games. These athletes will go through the qualification system set up by their respective International Federation. It is expected that the world best martial arts and combat sports athletes will qualify for the Combat Games. Both male and female athletes will take part. For those sports requiring weigh-in, different weight categories will be included.

During the eight days of competition, the 2010 SportAccord Combat Games will also include a cultural program. Indeed, martial arts and combat sports have rich cultural heritages and convey social and educational values. The Combat Games will then serve as a great opportunity to enable deeper understanding of the sports by the public.

This year's SportAccord Combat Games of 2010 will be held in Beijing, China. Best of luck to all athletes representing their home countries. The event will last from August 27th, 2010 to September 4th, 2010. The last of the national qualifiers for participating nations wraps for Asia during the week of June 25th to June 30th, 2010.
