

Muaythai stole the hearts of Beijing on the Cultural Night. The Royal Thai Embassy, in conjunction with IFMA and the World Muaythai Council organised a Cultural Night to demonstrate all aspects of muaythai as a way of life. The night proved to be a spectacular hit as over 50 embassies took part together with members of SportAccord, IOC, martial art federations and other important guests such as the President of SportAccord Mr. Hein Verbruggen, and Ron Froelich, President of the World Games, and so many others.
