The 4th of June saw a huge fight card at Lumpini stadium, with several titles on the line and many big name fighters.

It was the first big show after the stadium reopened following the end of the political disturbances of recent weeks and just what was needed to get the crowds back in through the doors.

Petpanomrung Sor Thamrangsri vs Mondam Sor Wirapon

Both fighters just go through the motions in the opening round. In round 2 Mondam starts to push forward and looks to take the fight into the clinch. Petpanomrung moves off to the sides and fires in some sharp left kicks. Mondam comes out even more fired up in the 3rd and marches forward opening up with hard knees and punches. Petpanomrung looks sharp in the clinch though and spins Mondam off balance several times and lands with some hard knees of his own. At one point Petpanomrung lands a perfectly timed pushkick that takes Mondam off his feet. Mondam pushes forward again at the start of the 4th and pressures Petpanomrung with more solid knee attacks. Petpanomrung struggles at first under the relentless pressure but gets through with more slick left kicks in the second half of the round. The final round is very close, with Petpanomrung starting fast with 3 sharp kicks and a hard stabbing knee. Mondam comes forward again and both trade knees in the clinch. Mondam backs off towards the end looking ahead, but Petpanomrung lands with 3 more fast kicks. Mondam lands a couple more knees
